Free Resource of the Day

Today we present two free talks by relationship expert and author of the bestselling book Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus, Dr. John Gray.

John Gray: Venus on Fire, Mars on Ice

In this talk the #1 bestselling relationships author of all time John Gray talks about one of his latest books Venus on Fire, Mars on Ice. This book focuses on how stress affects relationships and things that both men & women can do to manage their own stress and help out their partner. He goes into the importance of two hormones: testosterone for men and oxytocin for women. He explains how these hormones work to maintain healthy emotions in men and women and how couples can reinforce the production of these hormones in a relationship. He discusses many other differences between men and women and how knowing these differences can increase understanding for both sexes. This talk is available on streaming video from FORA.tv.

And for our second free resource:

John Gray: Why Mars and Venus Collide

In this talk from Book Passage, bestselling relationship book author John Gray talks about his book Why Mars and Venus Collide: Improving Relationships by Understanding How Men and Women Cope Differently with Stress. Gray describes biological and psychological differences in men and women that show how they differently deal with stress. He points to ways that stress can be reduced through relationships and by recognizing the differences in what causes men and women stress. This talk is available on streaming video from FORA.tv.

Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus: The Classic Guide to Understanding the Opposite Sex by John Gray

Get Seriously Involved with the Most Famous Relationship Book Ever!

Once upon a time Martians and Venusians met, fell in love, and had happy relationships together because they respected and accepted their differences. Then they came to Earth and amnesia set in: They forgot they were from different planets.

Based on years of successful counseling of couples and individuals, "Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus" has helped millions of couples transform their relationships. Now viewed as a modern classic, this phenomenal book has helped men and women realize how different they really are and how to communicate their needs in such a way that conflict doesn't arise and intimacy is given every chance to grow.

Morgan Scott Peck was an American Psychiatrist and celebrated Christian author. After serving as a psychiatrist throughout the 60's and 70's, his first book The Road Less Travelled appeared in 1978 and instantly became a instant classic in Christian living and self development fields. Other books, including People of the Lie, and The Different Drum have been no less hailed for their groundbreaking insight.

Thematically his work is devoted to pinpointing the attributes that best lead to a happy life. Indeed most of these attributes came to Peck in part as the result of his work as a psychiatrist. Peck passed away in 2005, leaving behind a body of work devoted to helping everyone find a joyous and fulfilling life.

For those new to Peck, there is no other place to look than The Road Less Travelled. Starting off with the brutal truth that "Life is difficult", Peck acknowledges that every person has a long road ahead of them before reaching self-understanding. This book serves as a guide for those that are willing to work for it, and as thousands can attest, the book works.
